Forgotten (The Surrender Series) (Volume 3) Rachel Madbury

There was a time when Graciella Snow didn't know what she wanted from life. Growing up without her mother had left her directionless and apathetic, her anger and resentment closing her off from everyone around her. But that was before... After following in her mother's footsteps to the coast of Maine she's finally getting a sense for who she is and what she wants from life, but at what cost? Falling in love with Alexander has opened her up in ways she never dreamed of, and now that love is on the line. Even with all of Alexander's attempts to protect her, Grace finds herself in more danger than ever before as they learn the terrifying truth about her mother's past, and come face to face with a darkness that refuses to be forgotten.
