Brush Strokes and Aphorisms César Augusto Quiroz

Words have to be loaded with music, sounds, smells and tastes. The author of this book is well aware of this. César Augusto Quiroz, who is a composer and songwriter, puts music to life and poetry to music. Poems can also be painted doors in an oil. Out of a canvas or a blank sheet, a title, an idea and a few verses can be converted into a literary work and the art of words can reach people, let them consider their everyday lives, how we love, we live, how we give to others or how we connect our relationship with the beyond. Poetry is all that and much more, or it can be, because channeling thoughts into verses or our feelings in aphorisms, as does the author in this book are two of the many ways that exist to transcend, to reach the understanding of life as a special way in the we can kick stones unconsciously or breathe each new image as an artist would: taking notes to remember after every moment and sharing it with others because, life, after all, consists precisely in that, in creating unique and unrepeatable moments.
