Life is Like a Box of Chocolates: You Never Know What You are Going to Get, portrays the true life journey of a woman set on fire by the trials of life. Sheba Reynolds was born and raised on the dark streets of Harlem. Sheba, as a child, saw it all, from the drug infested streets, to the heart broken tragedies she experiences in her own life. The things that Sheba went through, no child should be expected to endure. The streets of Harlem were filled with crime, drama, heartache and pain. The people that grew up in the hood was never expected to leave there being any good. The majority of the people that were born there, stayed there and died there. Sheba fought her battles to survive, vowing never to become a statistic of those that were labeled a product of their environment. Despite all odds, Sheba moved out of Harlem to become a successful business woman. How does any woman survive a life filled with so many dark and unbearable trials? What does she do? How does she go through the fire without being burned? Read and find out.
