Could you have avoided costly mistakes in your life if you knew then what you know now? If you could make the outcome of one of your most crucial life decisions more positive, would you do it? A great number of people would seize the opportunity to make a good decision even better. That's one of the reasons so many people around the world have gravitated to Living a Richer Life: Getting the Most out of Life's Gifts and Circumstances. In their usual, instructive and descriptive manner, Earl Cobb and his wife, Dr. Charlotte Grant-Cobb, share what they learned on their own personal life journey and build a convincing case that getting in the "position" to more thoughtfully "respond" (versus simply reacting) to life's challenges will lead to better choices and more positive outcomes. However, getting into that position requires more than you may think. By reading this book you will become more aware of yourself, discover a new technique to help you think through stressful situations and be fortified by the presentation of uplifting narratives that demonstrate the application of the Life Enrichment Model to crucial life altering circumstances. In addition, you will be presented with the opportunity to learn more about the "consciousness-enhancing" nature of the Life Enrichment Model and how to properly apply the model to potentially life changing circumstances in your life.
