On the Mountain June O'Brien, June OBrien

If you were called by a dream, by spirits who live in the mountains, would you go? Even if it meant everything would change, including who you think you are?

Ruby did. As a result she is taken on a journey by the Old Ones, creatures some people call Sasquatch. They lead her on an arduous journey with an unknown purpose, though they are clear that the need is urgent and Ruby's role essential.

Ruby knows she is a door to the dream world. Now she learns that she is more. With help from her two sisters, and the elders of two tribes, Ruby must learn what, and who, to trust.
