The Girl Inside, the Woman Inside me: Revelations of a Laredo girl, Border Dreamer: Bilingual songs, lyrics, poems, poetry, my life, and a little sex and the city without the sex Liza Pena

This book is based on bilingual poems, poetry, songs, and lyrics that I've mostly ever written, since middle school. This book reveals all my inner thoughts, feelings, and life experiences. I reveal and question things that others may relate to, but may never have the guts to question or bring up. This book was intended to release all my pain of a heart break, being therapeutic to me. I hope others can relate to my thoughts, questions, situations, and ideas. If at least one person can relate to one of my questions, situations, or feelings, then my purpose has been served. I wrote this book to let others know how I think and feel. This book is also intended for aspiring artists, who need lyrics, to further their career. It's about relationships and reality.
