God's How to Sit & Stand Walk & Run Manual Dummy's Edition (God's Manual Dummy's Edition Book 5) Scott F Neve

God's word is very precise. Everything is in order.

Every Christian must be born again through confession and baptism.

But after a baby Christian matures,

God expects the little tike to keep on growing and learning.

It's as simple as taking baby steps 1, 2, 3, 4.

First, we must practice and master the art of entering God's rest.

"Be still and know that I am God."

Don't even think about standing, walking,

or running until after you know how to sit in His presence.

You must be able to keep your peace in this troubled world.

You have to know that God is greater than any evil that will ever come your way.

Second, you must stand like a good soldier through the battle.

Fiery darts will come your way.

To be honest, the most damaging darts

are the ones we speak about ourselves;

so you must always forgive every day.

Forgiveness is also a double-edged sword that is for you and your enemies.

Forgive yourself and your enemy,

or it will not go well with you.

Third, walking by faith is not an easy stroll where everything you want falls off from trees.

Walking is a daily battle of wits and spirits.

You are a spirit and you must master your unsaved soul and body.

Renew your mind continually,

or it will try to commit the 7 deadly sins.

It's only natural for your body and soul to want to sin.

Fourth, running is much more than the hobby of great athletes.

It is a lifetime commitment to stay in peak spiritual condition,

so that you can handle anything that comes your way.

A running believer is almost impossible to stop.

Picture an 800 pound gorilla charging through the jungle.

Then a witch doctor tries to block the path.
That dirty devil is going to get beat to a pulp
and then left behind in the mud.
