Lost Innocence A Stephenson

Sometimes the Internet is the best thing since sliced bread. Other times - it is our worst nightmare. Case in point - the White family. When a predator moves into their neighborhood he overheard two sisters talking about a chat room for teens. He makes a decision to use it as a way to the one that reminds him of a memory from long ago. Taylor White unwittingly becomes the object of his demented delusions and her best friend becomes his undoing. It is only then that another puts an end to it all.
