Fifteen years he presumed her dead. Is now—too late?

Grady Mathews knew love, but like his health and father, it slipped away at a young age. Now thirty-two, engaged, and CEO of a large medical supply company, Grady longs to fill the void his heart has become since the death of Noelle Thompson, his first love.

When an opportunity arises to speak at Camp Dream Come True, a camp for children battling cancer, Grady agrees with reluctance. He knew the camp would surface painful memories, but he never dreamed it would bring her back. Now he must decide if a life of love with Noelle, is worth the risk of losing everything—his daughter.
