Malina has always admired the pictures of the circus that decorated the pages of her only books. She dreams of a life quite different than her gypsy family can offer her. So when she finds a chance to join a circus in Indonesia, she doesn't think twice about it. Her skills as a psychic give her the perfect act for the circus.

Everything is going well, that is, until two white tigers appear on the circus grounds - so ferocious that they need to be sedated constantly and can never leave their cage. Malina finds herself strangely drawn to the beautiful, massive beasts, although she's forbidden from going near them.

And strange only gets stranger when she starts seeing things and hearing things - and having dreams.

Dreams of two men ravishing her virgin body.

Could it be that these tigers are related to her dreams? How did they come to Tino's circus, and why can't they leave?

Malina is fated to find out - and become a part of an adventure wilder than she could ever have imagined.
