The Mona Lisas Carl R Stokes

Private Detective Charlie Edwards was intrigued by a phone call from Lily to meet him in Lichfield Cathedral, a call that had interrupted his paper plane production. The story told by Lily, of an inheritance of an old Master and the necessity to prove its authenticity, was nothing short of fantastic.

With the help of his former boss in the police force, Peter Jenkins, Charlie establishes that the original Mona Lisa had been stolen from the Louvre in the early 20th century. Had there been any copies made of it whilst it was in the thief's hands? If so, was the painting in the Louvre today the original?

What starts off as a quest to prove the authenticity of one painting quickly turns into a journey to find three other paintings.

Also what Charlie does not know that he is not the only person who is looking for these other paintings. The race is on .....
