Following The Tides Heather Danae

Plunge into an intricately linked dual romance, following two independent young women as they each navigate life's murky waters in an attempt to answer the question of whether it's better to achieve your dreams or discover romance.

At twenty-two, Aria has everything going for her. Living on the Majestic Sun cruise ship, she gets paid to do exactly what she loves as an onboard production dancer. And yet, something is missing from her life.

So when a burning desire to write a novel sparks, Aria gives it a whirl. Soon, her monotonous mountains of free time transform into an unexpected expedition into the life that could have been through her main character, Rose—a life that, perhaps, could yet be for Aria.

As she pursues her new artistic endeavor, her own life begins to flourish in the form of a flirty friendship with orchestra drummer Logan. However, her writing has given her back the independence she'd lost as a contract dancer, and Aria's not about to lose it again.

But what if she can manage to create a happily ever after for Rose—could it be possible for her to achieve a similarly romantic end for herself as well?
