Adventures of Victorino Chang. Alejandro Roque Glez

The Chang family has given us a young nobleman, a dreamer able to fight and defeat while learning the value and experiences of the inevitable losses during our lifetime. The fiction goes and Victorino leaves his land burdened by personal issues that were asphyxiating him, grabbing the simple image of his daily environment; however, once walking into the outside world different events that happen make the young to become mature, later a grown man, and then plenty of grey hair is no longer the humorous one who used to hold life between his hands. The pain of having to depart, sufferings he experiences in the meantime, and friends who appear in this story, made him to finally become a fighter who denounces the attacks and global plans of monopolies in detriment of nations' independence; but without ignoring his humanity to the point of being burlesque, as he is not perfect. Victorino leaves his homeland in the past, and returns to his natal nest in the future we have not lived yet.
