Castaway in the Caribbean Janice Horton

Castaway in the Caribbean Vacationing on the beautiful Caribbean island of Antigua, Janey Sinclair is persuaded by her magazine editor boss to do a quick island hop in order to supervise an impromptu photoshoot for the front cover. With no flights immediately available, Janey is directed to the harbour. Captain Travis Mathews hates tourists, although he's not above making a bit of money off a prissy and sharp tongued young British girl when she's desperate to get to the neighbouring island of Tortola. After striking a deal, they set off together in Travis's weather-beaten old boat. When the vessel comes to a sudden full stop in the sea, the mismatched pair end up as castaways on an uninhabited island. In this fast moving romantic adventure about a vacation that turns into a tropical nightmare there's more fun than you'll find in any travel brochure.
