I Love You More Than That (Emma; Made in China) (Volume 1) Dana S. Chisholm

A true story of adoption, rescue, and demonstration of love, "I love you more than that" is the story of Emma, the puppy found cold, shivering, and starving on the streets when Nathan lived in China, and the family made her part of the family. But, when Mommy tells Nathan it's time to move home to America, Emma worried if she would be put back on the streets! But, her boy, Nathan, assured her every step of the way not to worry, "I love you more than that!" Told through beautiful illustrations by artist Maria Sanchez, Emma's true life journey is inspirational to young and old. Be sure to visit Emma on her Facebook page to see more pictures of her real-life adventures (Facebook/Emma Made in China.) And watch for more of Emma's books coming in 2014 as Emma gets a brother, Emma runs for Mayor, Emma visits China, and Emma celebrates Christmas AND Chun Jie (Chinese New Year) learning life lessons in all she does. The "Emma; Made in China" series is written from a Christian perspective illustrating God's love for us and His provision as we learn life lessons and reach out to others. In the spirit of caring for others, Emma makes her books available at cost to animal rescue groups and adoption efforts (people) trying to raise money for the valiant efforts being made to love others "more than that." Please contact Admin@ChisholmTrailMedia.com if you would like copies of the book at cost for your fundraising efforts. And God bless you in your efforts.
