Quiet as It's Kept Monique Miller

Will Tracy is a good, God-fearing man who had a shaky childhood as he watched his father abuse his mother. But now he's grown and feeling confident and secure that he has finally met the woman he's been praying God would send him to be able feel the security he's always craved. Morgan is beautiful and appears to be the perfect Christian woman. But once Will pledges his life to her, he nearly loses his.... After a series of strange, inexplicable "accidents" plague him, he starts to wonder if the woman he married is all that she outwardly appears to be—or if he's indeed sleeping with the enemy. He continues to honor the vows he made to God and to Morgan. But is this wife of his really a gift from God? Or is she the devil in disguise?
