Malky's Heart: a Jewish novel (Letting Go, Book 2) Chaya T. Hirsch

After witnessing her best friend find the man of her dreams, Malky Gold wonders if she will ever experience the same. The thought of putting herself out there and opening her heart to a complete stranger scares her. Growing up with her parents constantly at each other's throats, she worries she will share the same fate.

Then she meets David Sander.

David is cool and easygoing, and they hit it off. But there's darkness behind David's eyes and sometimes it seems like he's pushing her away while other times he makes her feel like the most important person in the world. Malky wants to let him in, but she doesn't know if she's ready to risk her heart.

Can the two of them let go of their fears and have their happily ever after?
