Is a man worth giving up your dreams for? Or can you have it both?

Patrick Armstrong is a successful photojournalist and loves traveling the world chasing the perfect nature shots. He's given up hope to find a woman who enjoys travelling as much as he does. Until he meets her.

Angela Halliwell is the owner of a hugely popular travel blog. On her last trip before giving up the life of her dreams to settle down and marry, she meets Patrick. Is it really possible to have both – her dream life and a man she loves and adores?

She's willing to find out, when disaster strikes and she's about to lose everything – including her life.

Can Patrick overcome his biggest fear to save the woman he loves? A fear that has haunted him since he was a kid.

This is the fifth book in the Armstrong series. Every book in this 6-book big family contemporary romance series contains a complete love story without cliffhangers and can be read as stand-alone.

Follow each sibling on his or her path to a happily ever after, and meet again characters from previous stories in each new book.

All my books contain steamy scenes, deep emotions, humor and adventure.
