World We All Want Tim Chester, Steve Timmis

We all dream of a better world a world of security, plenty and friendship. Christians believe that God promises just such a new world. And the Bible is the story of what God had done and what he will do to keep that promise.

The world we all want is for people who are interested in discovering the message of the Bible. It is an introduction to the whole Bible story the story Christians believe to be the story of our world and its future. And as you start to see how wonderful God s story is, you ll also start to see how his story can become yours as well.

You can work through this course on your own, with a friend or as a group. Each participant will ideally have their own handbook which includes diagrams, Bible passages and places to write their own thoughts and ideas.

A leader's guide is also available in ebook format.
