Michie's Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland 2006--Annotation Citator None

Michie's Annotated Code of Maryland is the most current public record of all statutes still in force in the State of Maryland. The "Annotated" in the title refers to a variety of relevant information which may be appended to the text of a specific law. This information may include references to earlier editions of the Code, appellate court decisions where the point of law was quoted or cited, a discussion of the way the law was applied in a specific case, or a reference to a legal periodical article on the subject.
