Samantha Loxley is a twenty something, party loving career girl. Sexy and wickedly funny, she is ready to embrace her 'try anything once' personality but begins to realize she is getting stuck in a rut at the Advertising Agency. A chance meeting at the gym with the much older but gorgeous Drew throws a new perspective on her life as he introduces her to places she's never been, and she realizes that sexuality is far more complicated than she ever thought possible. The guys are gorgeous but then so are the girls, and what is a girl to do. The deadly Ninja assassin masseuse, ripped paper panties, and stick on bras that don't stick make for an interesting and hilarious day as she prepares for a big night out. But she will have to stay one step ahead of Marcus, the swarthy executive from the front office who has her picked out as a notch on his hotel bedpost. He discovers that far from being a master of the universe he hasn't accounted for Samantha's sharp tongue and her twisted humour as she leads him to the ultimate humiliation.
