Credit Card Debt 109: Options & Answers Mark Beimfohr

Credit Card Debt 109 is a book about my experience with credit card debt. High interest and high monthly payments I could no longer take. I finally gave up hope that somehow things were going to just 'get better' and I took action. You Can Too!! And with the help of this book your road to credit card debt relief will be a little less bumpy. I am not a financial expert; I am just a regular person that struggled thru this experience. I wrote this book so your struggle thru your credit card debt problems would not be as difficult. You can learn from my experience; you will not have to make some of the mistakes I made. The book tells of different options you have and will answer many of your questions; including some comments on your credit score. You will learn how my interest rate was reduced to 2% and lower, And how my monthly payments were reduced over 60 %. I did this myself – and you can too!! If you are financially burdened by credit card debt you want this book. Thank-You
