Don't Cry Out Loud Karmen Mulan Moxie

This true story is taken straight from the diaries of Karmen Mulan Moxie.. Violent screams engulfed the night. "Silent Treatments" dominated the day. But despite her parents' constant battles with each other, she kept her siblings secure. Weeks rolled by without electricity in their home. Yet she managed to provide warm meals and clean clothes each day. Her entire paycheck was for the sole purpose of caring for the family. And having the job while in high school did not affect her 3.9 grade average. Her family attended church regularly. The congregation adored them greatly. As a matter of fact, she was considered the epitome of what a young Christian sister should be. Dionne appeared to be the perfect student, child and Christian. Without warning, a dark, cruel secret from her past was thrust into the lime light for all to see. Dionne suddenly found herself forced into a race against herself; as she frantically clamors to keep her past from destroying the lie she had work so hard to build..her life.
