Eagle Lost races through the streets of Washington, D. C. in a tense, taut story full of danger, mystery, and neuroses as a Secret Service agent with no one to trust tries to save the American President. During his re-election campaign, the President decides to sneak away for a weekend of fishing. Only three people know of the President's whereabouts, one of those being Agent Wayne Mitchell, assigned to protect the leader on the trip. When the President is kidnapped, Mitchell must secretly search for him, his only help coming from a couple of homeless siblings he meets along the way. Eagle Lost leaves the audience breathless from its action-packed thrill ride. A gripping plot coupled with plenty of twists for conspiracy theorists, it provides edge-of-your-seat fun perfect for a summer blockbuster.
