Love in Shades of Jade: When Friends Won't Do J.M. Dabney

A chance meeting, a slight misunderstanding and a year later they remained in each other's friend zone. Shay and Hollis secretly longed for each other, but friends was the only thing they felt they could be. A friendship was more important than what could possibly happen between the sheets, then a proposition changed everything. Shay O'Donnell needed help seducing an unknown man and the only person that she wanted to ask was Hollis Black. The big, sexy man was clueless as to the voluptuous Shay's real motives for asking for his help. When the secret finally comes out, can friends really become lovers?
