The Phoenix (Volume 1) P. L. Gravenoir

Since its' founding the man-made island nation of Silver City has never lived up to the dreams of the islands originator, Patrick Silver. Instead of becoming a haven for the world's best and brightest Silver City has become a nation divided. The wealthiest of the islands citizens live safely in the island's center. "No-mans-land" is thin strip of the island not controlled by the police or the islands gangs who rule the docks. Christian Young, a twenty-one year old college student at Silver City University, lives on the edge of poverty. After taking on a job to earn a little extra money his world is going to change. Although the change might not be for the better...
