Join me as I walk through the life of Jesus, and look at Him through the eyes of those He touched. What would it have been like to be on the boat when Jesus calmed the sea? How would it feel to see your son raised from the dead? How would you react if Jesus asked you to sell all that you have? Can you imagine standing at the foot of the cross? Herein are stories from dozens who encountered Jesus as He walked the streets of Palestine two thousand years ago. I find myself in many of these stories, and you will too. As you put yourself in their skin, and hear the words of Jesus spoken directly to you, they will come to life . Each story is based on the gospel narratives, some more loosely than others. But in each you will sense the wonder of being with Jesus. You'll see His compassion played out vividly in the lives of those He touched. You may feel Him speaking directly to you as you look through the eyes of one who stood in His presence.
