Somewhere in the Between: Becoming Human Book 1 Henry Fleiss

Morty has been human over 150 times. He's considered an expert at it, by some. That's why he's been assigned to teach a class in the Between (the space between death and rebirth) for first-timers. In his current class is a former canine, whose only aspiration is to work in a dog food factory, and a couple aliens who don't seem to know anything about becoming human at all. They didn't even read the brochure. Morty can't figure out why, with each class he teaches, his students seem dumber and dumber. However, after they take birth, Morty uncovers a sinister plot. The Grigori, an advanced alien race, are plotting to dumb down the human race, heat up the atmosphere, and eventually take over the planet. Now, the only humans Morty can rely on to stop the bombs from going off are his incompetent students. Teamed up with intergalactic criminal named Jake Arson these unlikely heroes cannot fail, or the human race is doomed.
