Show after show, tour after tour, they scream for Steel Eyes. Yet she could pass any fan on the street and they'd never know it was her.

What should have been a life of global stardom is shadowed by debts of honor that can't be set aside. Anonymity is essential to her double life. Sex is easy, love is impossible. The only woman who will ever matter is safer not knowing the truth.

But someone has penetrated the secret layers of her identity and now they want Steel Eyes dead. If she is to survive an assassin's plot and claim any kind of future she will have to open the wounds of the past—back when the woman who loved her knew her name.

Look behind the mask of Steel Eyes in this powerful, high stakes novel by Melissa Price!
