Fire Up My Heart Asta Idonea

London bartender Fane thinks he's hit the jackpot when he finds a rare and expensive service Bot discarded in a dumpster, and he takes it home to get it working again. The Jo-E brings some much-needed companionship to Fane's lonely life, but there's something different about this Bot, as indicated by its odd behavior. Fane's developing feelings toward Jo-E trouble him, and things go from bad to worse when a robotics engineer arrives on Fane's doorstep, demanding the return of his property. Fane is forced to choose between a hefty reward and following his heart. Giving in to his forbidden desires might get him killed—or change his life forever.
