It seems that Aidan has arrived just in the nick of time. He frees her and sends her on her way, never thinking to see her again.

But it soon becomes clear that Graeme will not rest until he has finished what he started.

The Rogue Highlander

Cairistine had run free along the rocky slopes and throughout the thick woods of the highlands of Scotland for much too long, according to her father.

From an old woman who knew the ancient arts of healing, she had learned how to care for injured animals and spent a majority of her time doing just that, steering clear of being locked up inside a sod roofed shack as someone's wife.

That was until a man, as wild as the hills and woods, appeared before her, needing her help in order to survive...

Loving the Enemy

Isobel Darrow joined her brothers in the uprising because she'd seen firsthand the loss Scotland felt when English boots stood on its soil. She's committed to the cause and to slaughtering any Englishman who steps in her way. When the commander chooses her for a mission of importance and speed, she is more than happy to do her part. Until, that is, a traitorous--but charming--Englishman attempts to steal her horse.

Will Davenport is on a mission of his own, to stir up dissent among the ranks of the Scottish at Edinburgh. He thinks he's had a streak of luck when he stumbles across a girl with a horse. When he tries to make off with the beast, though, he discovers that the fiercely beautiful Isobel Darrow is not a girl to be taken lightly. Can they see past their countries' animosity to the passion that sparks between them?

The Scottish Rebel

In England, a war brewing as tyrannical King Stefan wages a battle for sole possession of the entire Scottish territory to satisfy his own lust for power and greed.

Even the love affair between Killian, a mystical Scotsman, and King Stefan's daughter, Katherine, will not stop his quest for power.

She's a noble of royal blood.

He's a rogue with a gallery of tricks up his sleeve and an axe-wielding brute for a right-hand man.

Is their love powerful enough to unite their people and stop the mad king's brutal reign?

Prowl of the Highlands - Highlander's Promise

Agnes is the daughter of a Scottish diplomat during the First Scottish war for independence.

She feels a strong tie with her family and her homeland, but when the war seems nigh, her father abandons their homeland and is rewarded with a fine diplomatic job in Britain in exchange for betraying his countrymen.

Agnes finds her father's betrayal of Scotland unconscionable, and decides to leave his house to help her homeland.

With some valuable documents concerning the war on her person, she heads off to Scotland to help in the conflict.

Can she ever prove herself in the effort to the mysterious general named Faolan, who seems to call the shots at the Scottish border town she finds on her journey?

Wolf of the Mountains - Highland Protector

Life hadn't been easy for Elspeth, living in Scotland in the middle of a bloody war. But when a battle just near the small village she's lived in all her life leaves her an open target for the English, things get worse.
