The Master Within: The University of Spirituality (Volume 2) Bodan

The University of Spirituality is the second installment of 'The Master Within' series, a three volume course designed for students seeking spiritual development. The University of Spirituality is a mystery school, accessible to students through deep prayer, meditation and while sleeping. The curriculum teaches students about the intricate nature and potential of individual spirituality and revealing the mysteries of life and learning directly from God by accessing the universal knowledge bank of causal ideas. Enrollment in the University of Spirituality basically entails an unswerving commitment to the process of spiritual development utilizing the 'Guru Self,' a concept that depicts the individual soul as the guru who enlightens the student to a deeper meaning of life experience. The teacher-student relationship is inherent within us and students learn to follow the inner guidance system of the soul centered in the heart. The primary objective of the student is to listen, absorb, decipher, express and create in accord with individuality and spirituality. Adopting this 'omnipresent' system of learning from God, the soul instills within the student many wondrous qualities, including renewed confidence, discipline, patience, responsibility and self-leadership through learning to be led intuitively. Such self-improvement efforts enable the student to fulfill greater potential and purpose.

The University of Spirituality's curriculum and The Master Within coursework cover numerous subjects for the serious minded student seeking to pursue the personal path to spirituality and acquire a greater understanding of God and the divine. Previews of the textbooks and much more information can be found on the University of Spirituality Web Site.
