Becoming a Christian was the most important decision I've made in my life.

Sharing this with my family, friends, and others should be easy, right?

WRONG

At first I was scared to share my faith with others because I dreaded the reaction I might receive.

I secretly feared when I mentioned Christianity to someone they would instantly start a barrage of questions. What if I couldn't answer them?

What if they immediately got mad and started debating different aspects of God, the Bible, and Christianity?

I knew I didn't have all the answers.

But there is one thing about Christianity that is indisputable. No one can question it (or it's relevance).

You can use this as the ultimate evangelism tool.

Pick up your copy today. This book gives you a blueprint to sharing your faith with a key aspect of Christianity that is effective and undebatable. God has commanded us to share our faith and make disciples of others. This book will step you through the most effective way to share your faith and give you the confidence to actually do it.
