In trying to be 'perfect' it is possible to miss being 'better'. Insights from the world of golf are drawn upon in this six-week group course as an aid to understanding the life of faith and the spirit. (Don't worry, all golfing terms are explained for the non-golfer!) John Cox, former Archdeacon of Sudbury, explores how we might become better - as individuals, in our relationships, as people of faith - without being torn by the guilt of not being perfect. Each session offers introductory thoughts, prayers, readings and suggestions for discussion and activities. Audio CD of suggested music included.

Week 1: A miss is as good as a mile

- Week 2: Practice doesn't make perfect
- Week 3: Staying positive
- Week 4: All you need is love
- Week 5: Let's imagine
- Week 6: It's up to you - but not entirely
