Mary Did You Know? Emma Alzner

Adam lives a casual, bleak life that revolves around his job in downtown Chicago and the recent loss of his mother. In order to find release from the slum he has found himself in, Adam buys a grief journal. However, when Adam discovers a confession to a murder written in his book, he finds himself trekking across the lines between right and wrong. In riding along the troughs and summits of his lifetime, Adam ventures to find if there is innocence left in his world.
