The Good University Guide for Ib Students - UK Edition 2014 Alexander Zouev, Roman Zouev

This new 2014 version of the popular IB university guidebook includes updated facts and figures, as well as some surprise new chapters. There are more than 35 university profiles (including Oxford, Cambridge, LSE and UCL amongst many others) with former IB students from over 20 different nationalities answering questions including: • How does your workload at university compare to that of the IB? • Do you feel you have an advantage over A-Level students? • Were the entry requirements fair? • Are there efforts made to accommodate international students? • Would you recommend your university to current IB students? Each university profile is complete with an in-depth student survey and all of the essential facts and figures. In addition, the introductory chapters cover the application process and give IB students essential tips and advice to securing a spot at the best UK universities across the UK. If you are an IB student considering university in the UK then this book is an absolute must-have.
