THE SIMPLE PHILOSOPHY OF HEAVEN

“In life you guided me. Now it’s my turn.” Tony Woodmansee

The Simple Philosophy Of Heaven is the true story of...

- the unbreakable bond between mother and son
- how even death cannot take our loved ones away
- what happens when we die
- the kind of place that awaits us in heaven
- how we can communicate with family and friends who are already there

Tony Woodmansee was 20 when he died on November 6, 2010 after suffering catastrophic brain injuries in a car accident. Before then, his mother Sally had never thought much about life after death. But within hours of her son’s passing, she became aware of strange grinding noises in her hand and arm.

She had no idea what they could be...

No idea, that is, until a medium told her it was Tony trying to get in touch with her..

The psychic told Sally that her son wanted his mother to help him communicate with the world through automatic spiritual writing.

On January 8, 2011 Sally sat down with her shopping pad and asked Tony one question. He answered, and since then he has written with his mother every single day.

He has filled almost 20 A4 notebooks, answering questions about everything – from what happens to babies who die to whether our loved ones in spirit prefer life here or there.

But there was one revelation that stunned Sally. And it was a revelation she knew the whole world needed to hear...

This book contains that revelation...

The Simple Philosophy Of Heaven is a story for everyone, and it brings a message of love. Sally, from Kent, in the South-East of England, says that she and Tony have an essential task: to share news of a non-religious spiritual awakening that is coming to the world.

This remarkable book tells of the astonishing connection shared by a mother and son. A connection that even death could not conquer. A connection that proves love never dies.
