Even as the obsession with everything ‘foreign’ continues unabated among India’s middle classes, something did change in the later part of the millennium’s first decade.

Students, Expatriates, Non-Resident Indians and Persons of Indian Origin are flying by the planeloads to a resurgent country– a land that defies logic and one that is not easy to navigate. It is a return trip for some, a two-way journey for many and a one-way ticket for several others.

Is India truly worth the sustained hype? Is it indeed the next superpower? What is it like to live and work in a nation that is seemingly managed by God himself?

Book a ticket to India and join the employees of Primetech Inc. as they stumble upon a few revelations.
