Falling Hard (Falling for the Freemans Book 2) Kate Hewitt

He didn't want complications. She was looking for a miracle.

Quinn Freeman has spent his life avoiding the dangers of commitment, but his reluctant return to his home town that's in tragedy for his family stirs up memories and emotions he'd intended to leave buried. His arrival lights hope in many hearts including one long dormant.

Meghan O'Reilly, the town's only plumber and solo caretaker of her dependent sister, is weighted down with responsibility. She only sees in Quinn a careless charmer who isn't used to hard work—but she still can't keep from imagining his kiss... and longing for his touch.

Surely some things, like a fling between them, can be simple... Or is it possible for a fling to become forever?
