The future can be altered, but the side effects can be hell. Rhiannon's Law, Book 2 Rhiannon believed a deranged child vampire was the most dangerous adversary she'd ever face, until she discovers something far worse. Sent forward in time, she hopes to deliver a message to her vampire lover, Disco, that will break the bargain she was forced to make with the demon Zagan. Until she finds reality altered almost beyond recognition. Humans are nearly extinct, killed by a vaccine that was supposed to protect them from the effects of a bloodsucker's bite. The few who have survived are now dominated by vampires. Worse, she finds that in this reality, there is no one she can trust. Nearly crushed by loss and betrayal, she shifts focus from severing the old debt against Zagan, to exacting revenge-with consequences she never fathomed. Only by reaching deep into the darkness within her can she hope to find the strength to fight for her life against creatures that want her dead and buried. Warning: Contains werewolves with wandering hands, vampires with a new thirst for blood, demons with serious issues, and a foul-mouthed heroine who refuses to become a damsel in distress.
