The Replacement Conspiracy Mr. Don M Forst

Architect Lance Lang has had a special gift since the age of eight, enabling him to permanently recall any image he's previously seen in complete detail. The trouble begins when he visits a museum and recognizes the replacement of an art masterpiece. Now, he reconsiders his gift to be a curse, when it puts his life, and the lives of others, in mortal danger. Yet his brother Evans, with the CIA, puts his faith in Lance's gift. Lance is welcome onto an investigative team at CIA headquarters in Langley, Virginia. Original museum masterpieces by a single artist may be the target of forgeries. Even more upsetting, this operation may include masterpieces in museums around the world. The timing couldn't have been worse, as Lance has just met the enigmatic, irresistible Nora O'Brian, who faces her own difficulties in balancing her duty as a journalist and returning Lance's intense feelings for her. In an attempt to quell what may become a worldwide art conspiracy, Lance battles the dangers of chasing the conspirators, fighting through bureaucracy, uncovering Italian Mafia involvement, and running for his life while those close to him are pursued and endangered.
