Losing The Plot: Beat to a Pulp Philip Willey

BERT, a twice-divorced crab-fisherman, ARTHUR, a semi-retired knicker-sniffer, CHUCK a C.I.A. part-time novelist, and DANNY, a down to earth stoner, are thrown together in a world where losing the plot seems the only way to get by. Until that is a terrorist bomb is planted in the core of their favorite fast-food joint... This quirky tale of personal excess, failure, big-macs, aspirations, g-strings, and magic weaves our cast of eccentric characters around to combine a potent stew of combustible madness. LOSING THE PLOT is a post-modern meditation on the lives of four mildly deranged Westerners trying to make sense of their lives in an unknown land. LOSING THE PLOT is by an original member of the London underground counter-culture movement, Philip Willey, who has also written critically acclaimed books on John Lennon and William Burroughs.
