He's a rock star shifter on a mission of mercy, she's a mother who will do anything for her child. Can a famed playboy find love with a soccer mom? You'll be singing the praises of Rosanna Leo's passionate, new romance, Predator's Serenade, Book 2 of the Gemini Island Shifters series.

There are three things that make bear shifter Soren Snow's skin crawl: mothers, their children, and the great outdoors. Soren is a famed musician and playboy, and he would rather spend his days pressing the flesh with the women in his fan club than developing meaningful relationships. When his brother calls in a favor, forcing Soren to revisit the Ursa Fishing Lodge in Northern Ontario, he couldn't be more displeased. However, he owes his brother big time.

Gioia Clementine would rather not meet Soren, her drummer son's rock idol. But when tragedy strikes her home, it seems the only one the boy might respond to is Soren. Gioia begrudgingly agrees to let her son meet him, hoping the rock star won't turn her tween into a musical misogynist.

When Gioia and Soren meet, the sexual chemistry threatens to set the Ontario woodland ablaze. Can these two opposites find a common ground? And can they manage to resolve their unwanted feelings, even when a mysterious stranger arrives at the lodge, threatening everything?
