Anthony Miller is the epitome of the 'nice guy' stereotype. He's the man every father wants his daughter to marry. The only problem is, the one woman he wants is happily married to someone else. Just when he feels like he is destined to be alone for the rest of this life, Officer Nora O'Brien takes a liking to him. Her brash, forward personality and gorgeous looks leave him wondering how to handle her. But she's the one intent on handling him. When they take a chance together, Nora's insecurities and another man's attention drive them apart. Will they be able to release their demons and find love together?
