Student Life Skills Handbook Laura J. Peck

This is not your ordinary life skills handbook. It will not give you a step by step answer to everything, This handbook will give you enough, but the truth of it all is that you will have to put in the work. With these ten life skills, you will have the honor of challenging yourself, putting yourself out there and pushing your own boundaries to become the person you were always meant to be. This handbook will make you question yourself, but above all it will make you think and know that you are going to become a better version of yourself once you start to make those changes. These changes are not a one time thing. They are a lifetime process that not only do I believe you can do, but I know way down deep inside, you believe you can do. Challenge yourself everyday to become a committed, better student. Challenge yourself everyday to become a committed, better human being because than you will truly become the person you were always meant to be.
