The Man Who Really Lived: Remembering Burt Patricia Powers, Burt Crowell

This book is written by Burt, but differently from the traditional manner that someone would write a book. Burt kept a log and wrote of his experiences with his fishing and duck hunting trips. He also kept a log that contained very spiritual inspiration that he received. When he describes his life experiences, it seemed to come alive in a way that is simple to understand and yet mystical. Spending hours and days in the Florida Everglades and other remote areas opens the mind and soul to an understanding that is beyond the ordinary. Burt truly lived his dreams and explored all phases of living in body, mind, spirit and soul. He is a talented, electrical technician, navy warrior, businessman, fisherman, hunter and philosopher. Burt believed the earth is created for mankind but to be used with dignity and respect for all creatures. We are Remembering Burt in this way now and eternally. He loved life and the beauty of nature. It is my hope that after reading these stories, you will start thinking about similar situations in your own life. In closing, I do not believe in luck. I believe the Holy Spirit lives within us, and is helping to guide our life as needed.
