A People of Beauty Dr. John Calvin Alberty

A “People of Beauty” is a poignant and moving look at the history and the journey of the African American from their homeland, through the diaspora, to the United States. It captures their trials, tribulations and the tremendous obstacles faced by this strong and resilient people. It celebrates their intellect, strength, fortitude, love and creativity. They are seen as they really are, “A People of Beauty.” Travel with them from Eden to Africa, and from Africa to NOW. This amazing production employs songs, pathos, dynamic prose, poetry, and rich dialect to convey its narrative. To this is blended moods that translate moans, groans and shouts of approbations to yield a canvas of pure artistic expression. Become enthralled as you vicariously observe their journey, their victories, their love, and their commitment to freedom for themselves and their progeny. It is all contained here, in this dramatic and colorful stage-play entitled, “A PEOPLE OF BEAUTY.”
