Today, all litigants have a duty to request and disclose responsive electronic evidence in their cases. Whether your personal injury case is large or small, or whether you are a sole practitioner or a member of a large personal injury firm, discovery issues relating to ESI will have to be addressed and resolved. This book is designed to offer you a "nuts and bolts" guide for the myriad of legal and technology issues that need to be addressed whether you are requesting or producing "electronically stored information" (ESI).
