Shadowy Reflections William G. Anderson

Three teenagers, Blake, his best friend Marsh, and his girlfriend, Krista, narrate their experiences as sixteen year olds growing up in the Bible belt of middle America, facing the common “slings and arrows” of adolescence: drugs, sex, peer pressure, violence and rebellion. But something else comes into play in their lives. Something that is far from normal and certainly not commonplace. They have no idea what it is or even IF it is. Their lives become a whirlwind of aggressive and unpredictable behaviors that make them question their core beliefs and the essence of their own existence.
